

"Wherever You Are"

Verse 1

Sleeplessly I lie awake tonight, thinkin' about my future bride.
What does her hair look like? What's her name? And the color of her eyes?
I've never been right here before, standing here looking through an opened door.
At a whole wide-world full of girls in my life, and someday I'd love to make one of them my wife.

Chorus 1

Wherever You Are tonight, I hope that you are doing all right.
Whatever you are doing, I pray your feeling fine.
However you are feeling, I wish I could be there to hold your hand.
I'd never let go, but I'll love you till then.
Wherever You Are, Wherever You Are, Wherever You Are

Another day wondering 'round this ole place, keeping my eyes open for her face.
Will I know her when I see her, or is she someone, I've already seen someday?
I've never felt like this before, I just can't wait till I see her walking through that door.
To know that my love won't be wasted, it'll be worth all the years of waiting.

Chorus 2

Wherever You Are in life, I hope that you are doing all right.
Whatever you are doing, I pray your feeling fine.
However you are feeling, I wish I could be there to hold your hand.
I'd never let go, but I'll love you till then.
Wherever You Are, Wherever You Are, Wherever You Are

Bridge

And if you're with someone right now, they better treat you the same way I would.
They better not ever hurt you, cause for them that would not be good.

Chorus 1

Tag

Sleeplessly I lay awake tonight, thinking about my future bride...

Written By: Ryan Riddle